Kata Pengantar

Puji syukur kami panjatkan kepada Tuhan Yang Maha Esa yang telah memberi hidayah, kekuatan, kesehatan, dan ketabahan kepada kami sehingga penyusunan bahan ajar seri Interlanguage: English for Senior High School Students ini terselesaikan.

Bahan ajar ini disusun dengan tujuan menyediakan materi pembelajaran Bahasa Inggris untuk peserta didik kelas X sesuai dengan Standar Isi mata pelajaran Bahasa Inggris 2006. Materi dan tugas pembelajaran dikembangkan dengan prinsip-prinsip Communicative Approach untuk secara terintegrasi mengembangkan kompetensi peserta didik dalam keempat keterampilan berbahasa, yaitu menyimak, berbicara, membaca, dan menulis. Selain itu materi dan tugas pembelajaran secara terpadu mengembangkan kecakapan hidup dalam arti luas dan peningkatan wawasan kebinekaan.

Materi dan tugas-tugas pembelajaran dalam bahan ajar ini diorganisasikan ke dalam dua siklus pembelajaran, yaitu siklus lisan dan siklus tulis. Sementara siklus lisan menekankan pengembangan keterampilan berbahasa lisan (menyimak dan berbicara), siklus tulis mengembangkan keterampilan dalam berbahasa tulis (membaca dan menulis). Sesuai dengan prinsip keterpaduan dalam pembelajaran bahasa, kedua siklus tersebut mengembangkan keempat keterampilan berbahasa secara terintegrasi. Baik siklus lisan maupun siklus tulis tersusun atas empat macam kegiatan pembelajaran, yaitu pembuka, pajanan terhadap bahasa target, penjelasan mengenai unsur-unsur kebahasaan, dan latihan berkomunikasi dalam bahasa target secara terbimbing maupun bebas. Selain itu, untuk keperluan pengayaan dan evaluasi, setiap unit dilengkapi dengan tugas terstruktur berupa pekerjaan rumah dan review.

Kegiatan-kegiatan belajar dikembangkan untuk menjadikan siswa secara aktif belajar Bahasa Inggris melalui kegiatan memahami dan menggunakan bahasa Inggris untuk mengekspresikan gagasan dan perasaan secara alami. Dalam pembelajaran, guru diharapkan bertindak sebagai fasilitator, pemberi umpan balik, dan pendorong siswa agar berani menggunakan bahasa target untuk berkomunikasi secara akurat dan berterima.

Penyusunan buku ajar ini terselesaikan atas dukungan dari berbagai pihak. Oleh karena itu, kami mengucapkan terima kasih kepada semua pihak yang telah membantu terselesaikannya penyusunan buku ini.

Walaupun kami telah menyusun bahan ajar ini dengan upaya yang sungguh-sungguh, karena berbagai keterbatasan kami, buku ini masih memiliki sejumlah kekurangan. Sehubungan dengan hal tersebut, kami mengharapkan masukan dari berbagai pihak, terutama guru dan siswa pengguna buku ini, untuk perbaikan lebih lanjut.

Joining the Traditional Dance Competition

I joined the Traditional Dance Competition in Jakarta last year. I represented my Junior High School. It was my biggest competition. I practised hard with my teacher for a month. We also prepared the best costume we had.

We only had one day in Jakarta. We went there by plane. We left at 6 a.m. and arrived in Jakarta at 7 a.m. We took a taxi to take us to the place where the competition was held. It took an hour to get there. There were already some participants when we arrived. The competition would start in an hour.

First, my teacher and I went to the dressing room. My teacher helped me do the make-up and the costume. We spent almost an hour for the preparation. I told my teacher that I was really nervous. I was not ready for this. However, she told me that everything was alright, and I felt better.

Then, the time came for me to perform on stage. There were five judges and about two hundred people watching me. However, I did not feel nervous anymore. I performed on the stage confidently. I really did the best I could. I was glad when it ended smoothly.

After that, we waited for the announcement of the result. It was 4 p.m. when the judges finished making their final decision. I was so impatient to hear the result. I still could not believe when they called my name as the first winner. I was so happy to be given the trophy. My teacher was also proud of my achievement. Finally, we went back to Yogyakarta in the evening. We were so tired. However, we were satisfied because our effort was not useless.

Swimming

When I was a boy, I liked swimming very much. Each year my two brothers and I spent the holiday with our uncle and aunt in their house by the sea. It was only twenty yards from the water. The water was warm, the sun shone brightly, and most days there were no waves. In the middle of the day a wind always began to blow, but it was not strong and did not make the sea rough.

One day, we put on our swimming-shorts before breakfast. Then, we ran down to the sea across the sand and jumped in. We were in the sea or on the beach until late at night. When our aunt rang a bell, we went back to the house for food, but we ate it in our swimming-shorts and soon went back in the sea again. We were all very good swimmers. We dived through the waves or rode towards the beach on top of them until we were tired and hungry.

You can find expressions of saying goodbye in many songs. One of them is entitled Goodbye by Spice Girls.

Goodbye

Now listen little child, there will come a day
When you will be able, able to say
Never mind the pain or the aggravation
You know there's a better way
for you and me to be

Look for the rainbow in every storm
Fly like an angel heaven sent to me
Goodbye my friend

(I know you're gone you said you're gone but I can still feel you here)

It's not the end

(You gotta keep it strong before the pain turns into fear)

So glad we made it

Time will never change it no no

Just a little girl, big imagination

Never letting no one take it away

Went into the world (into the world)

What a revelation

She found there's a better way

for you and me to be

Look for the rainbow in every storm

Find out for certain

Love is gonna be there for you

You'll always be someone's baby

You know it's time to say goodbye

We would play about the way we used to

Scream and shout never dreamt you'd go

Your own sweet way

You know it's time to say goodbye

And don't forget on me you can rely

You know it's time to say goodbye

And don't forget on me you can rely

I will help, help you on your way

I will be with you every day

My Grandpa's Funeral in Toraja

Last month my family and I went to Toraja to attend Grandpa's funeral. It was my first time to go to such a ceremony. We gathered there with our kin in the ceremony.

Overall, the ceremony was quite elaborate. It took about a week. Several days before the ceremony was done, grandpa's body was kept in a series of houses arranged in a circular row around an open field called tongkonan. His corpse was dressed in a fine wearing.

The funeral was performed in two phases. First, we slaughtered the pigs and buffaloes, and then moved the corpse to face north. In this ceremony we wore black clothes. After that, the corpse was placed in a sandal wood coffin. Then, it was brought out of the house and placed on an open platform beneath the granary. Meanwhile, my uncle, my brother, and I prepared the wooden puppet and a funeral tower called lakian. The next phase of the ceremony was held in this place. The coffin is borne from the house and placed in the lakian. During the day, there were also buffalo matches. They were great matches. In the night, we were feasting, chanting, and dancing.

On the last day, the grandpa's coffin were lowered from the funeral tower and brought up to the mountain side family graveyard. It was followed by great shouting and excitement from the relatives and the guests. Finally, we installed the wooden puppet on a high balcony where other puppets representing the members of a whole family were already there.

The funeral ceremonies made my family and me tired. However, we were grateful because it ran smoothly.

In the following morning, Ijab Ceremony (religious marriage consecration) was held. I sat right behind the bride. I really didn't want to miss this moment because it is the most important phase in the wedding. After Ijab , there were some Javanese ceremonies following the wedding celebration. They were Panggih , Balangan Suruh , Wiji Dadi , Sindur Binayang , Timbang , Tanem , Tukar Kalpika , Kacar Kucur , Dahar Klimah , Sungkeman and Mertui Ceremony. I was too busy in the reception table so I did not follow all of those ceremonies.	Paragraph
The very first ceremony was Siraman (bathing ceremony). Siraman means to take a bath. The Siraman ceremony was organized in the afternoon. I was also involved in preparing the place and the stuffs needed. After the Siraman , the bride was led to the wedding room. She was dressed with a traditional woman's blouse (kebaya) and batik clothes. Make-up was put on her by a traditional make-up woman who led the whole ceremony. The bride looked very beautiful.	Paragraph
I went back home in the evening by the last train. I went happily because I could attend my cousin's wedding even helped the preparation.	Paragraph
Two weeks ago I went to Semarang to attend my cousin's wedding. I was there for four days. I was involved in the preparation of the wedding ceremony. Like other Javanese wedding ceremonies, it has several complicated traditional rituals.	Paragraph
The next ceremony was Peningsetan or Srah Srahan (traditional engagement ceremony). The family of the would-be-bridegroom visited the parents and the family of the would-be-bride. They were bringing some gifts. After this ceremony, I helped the women in the backyard. We packed the snacks for the party in the morning.	Paragraph

The second ceremony was Midodareni (ceremony on the eve before the wedding). The bride had to stay in the room from 6 p.m. to midnight accompanied by some elder women giving her useful advice. My other cousins and I also visited her for a while.	Paragraph
After the wedding rituals, the reception followed. The newly wed couple received blessings and greetings from the guests. The newly wed couple looked very happy although they couldn't hide their tired faces.	Paragraph

Kyai Jegod

Once upon a time there was a king who ruled Mataram Kingdom. His name is Amangkurat IV. He was the grandfather of Sultan. He often meditated in a nearby forest, called Garjitawati.

One day, when a gardener was gathering grass for his cattle in the forest, he looked for some water because it was so hot. He found a small pond and when he was going to drink some water from it, a dragon came out of the underwater, but it was so friendly to him. The dragon said that if Sultan wanted to build his palace, it was supposed to be located in that forest. Then it disappeared.

Then Sultan started to build the palace in that forest. He demanded strong and old woods and the forest where those woods lied was said to be home of genies and spirits. His lumberjacks could not find anything to eat and the only thing they could have were some rice and water for three days, or sometimes they could not have anything.

Then Sultan ordered that the main pole in the palace's hall had to be built from special wood, which would give strong impression. One night, a servant who was sleeping in the forest heard loud and deep voice. The voice introduced itself as Kyai Jegod. The servant saw that Kyai Jegod was an old, tall, and massive tree. He said that he would voluntarily let himself be cut to make the main pole so that he could stay inside it forever.

The servant told it to Sultan and Sultan let Kyai Jegod stay inside it forever, while Kyai Jegod became the protector of that palace since then.

Task 15

Study the following notes.

The text in Task 14 is a narrative text that entertains and instructs the readers. It entertains because it deals with the unusual and unexpected development of events. It instructs because it teaches readers that problems should be confronted, and attempts made to resolve them. The text incorporates patterns of behaviour that are generally highly valued.

The text is organized to include:

- a stage that introduces the main character/s in a setting of time and place;
- a sequence of events, which may begin in a usual pattern, is changed in some way so that the pattern of events becomes a problem for one or more of the characters. The events are evaluated by the character/s, thus making it clear to the reader that a crisis has developed;
- the problem is resolved or attempted to be resolved; and
- a stage which makes explicit how the character has changed and what has been learned from the experience.

The grammatical features include:

- use of particular nouns to refer or to describe the particular people, animals and things that the story is about;
 - use of adjectives to build noun groups to describe the people, animals or things in the story;
 - use of time connectives and conjunctions to sequence events through time;
 - use of adverbs and adverbial phrases to locate the particular events;
 - use of past tense action verbs to indicate the actions; and
 - use of saying and thinking verbs to indicate what characters are feeling, thinking or saying.

Task 23

Make a summary of the story entitled Princess Loro Jonggrang below.

The Legend of Princess Loro Jonggrang

Once upon a time in Java Island, especially in Prambanan, there were two Hindu kingdoms, they were Pengging and Kraton Boko. Pengging Kingdom was a prosperous and wealthy kingdom led by a wise king named Prabu Damar Moyo who had a son named Raden Bandung Bondowoso.

Kraton Boko was a part of Pengging Kingdom jurisdiction led by a cruel king that was not a man but a giant who was a man eater, named Prabu Boko. However, Prabu Boko had a very beautiful daughter named Princess Loro Jonggrang. Prabu Boko also had a minister named Patih Gupolo that was a giant too. Prabu Boko had a desire to revolt and had control over Pengging Kingdom. Therefore, together with Patih Boko, they gathered the power by training men to become soldiers and collected goods from civil people as provisions.

After having enough preparation, Prabu Boko and all soldiers went to Pengging Kingdom to revolt. Then the war between Pengging and Boko Soldier happened in Pengging kingdom. A lot of soldiers died from both sides. People of Pengging became poor and suffered from starvation.

Knowing that his people were suffering and there were lots of soldiers died, Prabu Damar Moyo sent his son, Raden Bandung Bondowoso to have a battle with Prabu Boko. The fighting between Raden Bandung Bondowoso and Prabu Boko was very furious. Because of the power of Raden Bandung Bondowoso, Prabu Boko can be defeated, and then he died. When Patih Gupalo found out that his king died, he ran away from the battle. Raden Bandung Bondowoso chased him to Kraton Boko.

After he arrived at Kraton Boko, Patih Gupalo reported to Princess Loro Jonggrang that her father died in the battle, that he was killed by a Pengging knight named Raden Bandung Bondowoso. Then the princess cried, she was very sad because of the death of her father.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso finally arrived at Kraton Boko. He was surprised when he saw Princess Loro Jonggrang, She was very beautiful so he proposed her to become his wife. However, Princess Loro Jonggrang did not want to marry Raden Bandung Bondowoso because he killed her father. To refuse his proposal, Princess Loro Jonggrang had a strategy. She had two requests that should be fulfilled by Raden Bandung Bondowoso so that she would agree to marry him. First, she asked him to make Jalatunda well. Then, she asked him to make 1000 temples in one night.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso accepted the requests. Immediately he started to make Jalatunda well and asked Princess Loro Jonggrang to see it. Then, Princess Loro Jonggrang asked Raden Bandung Bondowoso to go into the well, and after that she ordered Patih Gupolo to pile up the well with stone. Both Princess Loro Jonggrang and Patih Gupolo thought that Raden Bandung Bondowoso already died in the well. However, Raden Bandung Bondowoso was still alive. He meditated and finally he could get out from the well safely.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso was very angry with Princess Loro Jonggrang. However, because of her beauty, he soon forgot about his anger. After that, Princess Loro Jonggrang asked Raden Bandung Bondowoso to do the second request which was to make 1000 temples in one night. Therefore Raden Bandung Bondowoso commanded genies to make the temples immediately. However Princess Loro Jonggrang intended to foil his effort to make the temples. She ordered the girls to pound and burn stubbles, so that the sky looked bright as if the morning had come. That made the cocks crow loudly.

Hearing the cocks crowing, people pounding rice, and seeing the brightness in the east, the genies stopped making temples. Genies reported to Raden Bandung Bondowoso that they could not continue building the temples because the morning had come. Raden Bandung Bondowoso got the feeling that the morning had not come yet. He asked Princess Loro Jonggrang to count the amount of the temples. The total was only 999 temples, so there was still 1 temple left. Therefore, Princess Loro Jonggrang refused to marry Raden Bandung Bondowoso. Feeling deceived, Raden Bandung Bondowoso was very angry and cursed her, "Loro Jonggrang, there is only 1 temple left, let you be the one to make it complete". It was a miracle that suddenly Princess Loro Jonggrang transformed to a stone statue.

Until today, the stone statue of Princess Loro Jonggrang is still in Candi Prambanan and Raden Bandung Bondowoso cursed the girls around Prambanan area to become old virgins because they helped Princess Loro Jonggrang. Based on what is believed by old people, the couple who are dating in Prambanan temple will break up.

Cultural Tips

When you are doing business in the United States, you must be on time. Americans view someone being late as rude, showing a lack of respect and having sloppy, undisciplined personal habits. Being "on time" in business situations generally means being about five minutes early. Five minutes late is acceptable with a brief apology. Ten to fifteen minutes late requires a phone call to warn of the delay and to apologize.

Questions 12 - 16 are based on the following text.

The Football Match

My brother and I went to a football match yesterday. Our school team was playing against another High School team. Our team wore red and white shirts, white shorts, and red stockings. The other team wore orange and black shirts, orange shorts, and black stockings. "They look like bees", my brother said, and we laughed.

They played like bees too. They ran very fast, attacked very hard, and passed the ball to each other very fast. Soon they scored their first goal. My brother and I shouted and shouted, "Come on, Valley School! Come on, the Valleys!" Our headmaster was near us and he was shouting too. He seemed very enthusiastic. However, the high school scored another goal. We were very sad.

Then, one of the "bees" stopped the ball with one of his hands, so our team got the free kick. Our captain took it and scored a goal. We shouted, "Hooray!" The score was now 2:1. That was better.

Now our team began to play better—or the "bees" were getting tired. Our team scored another goal before half-time. In the second half of the match, both teams tried very hard, but neither scored, so at the end the score was still two all.

Queen Aji Bidara Putih

Muara Kaman lies along the Mahakam River, in eastern Borneo. In the past the area was a kingdom ruled by Queen Aji Bidara Putih. She was a typical queen of myths: beautiful, wise, and sensitive. Many princes and kings proposed to her but she always refused them because she was more concerned with ruling her country and guarding her people.

One day, a Chinese boat came to eastern Borneo. First, the people thought it was a merchant ship but the boat was loaded with trade goods and highly trained soldiers. Their envoys brought gold and porcelain to announce the marriage proposal from a prince of China. The queen didn't refuse instantly and replied that she had to ponder the proposal first. After the envoys left the palace, the queen called a court officer and ordered him to infiltrate the Chinese boat to gather information on the prince.

When night fell the officer sneaked onto the boat, got by all the guards, and finally found the prince's room. The large door would not open and he couldn't find a peek hole, so the officer put his ear to the wall, trying to catch sounds from inside. He heard that the prince was having his dinner and the noise of his chewing and slurping surprised the officer. It was like a boar that he had once heard when he was hunting.

He quickly left the boat and returned to the palace. He reported that the prince must have been a phantom, not a human. He believed that the phantom could be in a human's form only during the daytime. The queen was so surprised and got angry. On the next day, she refused his proposal.

The enraged prince ordered his troops to raid Muara Kaman. The battle was won by the prince's huge band of troops. As they drew near to the palace, Queen Aji Bidara Putih chewed a leaf of betel vine and sang a mantra while holding it. When she threw it at the Chinese troops, it turned to giant centipedes. The Chinese troops started to retreat but three centipedes chased them and sank the boat. The site of the sunken ship is now known as Danau Lipan (Lake of Centipedes), with Chinese treasures hidden on the lake's bed.

The Snow Bride

Many years ago, when great forests still covered the hills of Japan, a samurai named Hikaru lost his way in a sudden winter storm. Snow pellets sharp as spears pierced his cloak and drove him blindly into the deep woods.

Cold stalked him, and he had no weapon to battle this invisible enemy. Finally his horse burst into a clearing. The wind rattled the tree limbs, but no snow fell here. A wooden house squatted beside a huge camphor tree. The snow was a smooth white carpet. This quiet place seemed peaceful enough, but he sensed someone watching, waiting in silence.

A door opened. A white-haired woman studied him. Holding out her arms, she murmured, "Welcome, my lord. Enter and feel no fear."

Hikaru smiled. He had killed fear long ago. But his horse ran away from the tiny hut. The samurai pulled the reins and drove it forward until the horse reluctantly moved forward. He found a lean-to built on the side of the hut, sheltered on one side by the hut and on the other by the tree. When his mount discovered some hay, its hunger drove out all fear. He left the animal peacefully grazing and went to find his hostess.

The hut was simply furnished, though firelight created a golden sparkle off the dishes and cups she set before him. Where had this woman found such luxuries, he wondered as she silently served him.

After he had eaten, he fixed his eyes on her. "Who are you?"

She kept her gaze modestly lowered. "I am called Yuki, my lord. This place is my home."

Yuki glided around the room in a silken whisper. Gradually he became aware of how quiet the woods had become. "Are you not lonely here?"

Her lips quirked in a shadow of a smile. "You are here, my lord. As long as you are pleased with me, how could I be lonely?"

Time passed, but it was always winter. Hikaru forgot everything but the lovely woman who anticipated his wants. As soon as he thought, "I want – " Yuki was there, offering food and drink to fill his belly or song to soothe his soul. Yet men are never content. For a warrior, even an earthly paradise can become a wicked prison.

One day, Hikaru woke with anger. Nothing Yuki said or did pleased him.

Dashing dishes off the table, the tiny crashes echoed how he'd destroyed his enemies in the past. The memory inflamed his temper. Enough of this quiet and inaction! He could find that in death.

"My lord, tell me how I have displeased you. I – "

"You, woman!" he snapped. "You've kept me prisoner in this place far too long!"

He rushed to the door and flung it open. A cold breeze brushed his cheek. Yuki grasped his sleeve. "My lord! Do not leave!"

"Enough!" The samurai jerked from her grip. Rage boiled in his heart as he backhanded her. "Out of my way, woman!"

"As you wish." The mark of his hand seemed a dark bruise on her pale skin. "I will bother you no more." Head bowed, Yuki stepped aside. The door swung shut between them.

A low moan shuddered amongst the trees. Wind whipped his helm from his head and his cloak off his shoulders. Cold knifed his body, just beneath the heart.

"Yuki?" Blinded, Hikaru stumbled backwards, but tree bark scraped his questing hands. Where was the hut? It was cold, so cold.

Spring came late that year. Birdsong welcomed the sun's return. The golden fingers of the goddess Amateratsu caressed the still alabaster face of the sleeping man. But he never wakened. As she continued her journey across the sky, cherry trees covered the silken clad form with tiny pink-edged petals, a living blanket of snow.

Task 12

Rearrange the jumbled paragraphs of the story of Bloody Mary from Pennsylvania into a good text by numbering the paragraphs. Look at the example.

Once upon a time, there was a maiden lived deep in the forest in a tiny cottage. She sold herbal remedies for a living. Folks living in the town nearby called her Bloody Mary, and said she was a witch. None dared cross her cottage for fear that their cows would go dry, their food-stores rot away before winter, their children take sick of fever, or any number of terrible things that an angry witch could do to her neighbours.	paragraph 1
--	--------------------

The desperate cries of the miller and his wife woke the neighbours. They came to assist the frantic couple. Suddenly, a sharp-eyed farmer gave a shout and pointed towards a strange light at the edge of the woods. A few townsmen followed him out into the field and saw Bloody Mary standing beside a large oak tree, holding a magic stick that was pointed towards the miller's house. She was glowing with an unearthly light as she set her evil spell upon the miller's daughter.	paragraph ...
Then came the night when the daughter of the miller rose from her bed and walked outside, following an enchanted sound no one else could hear. The miller's wife had a toothache and was sitting up in the kitchen treating the tooth with an herbal remedy when her daughter left the house. She screamed for her husband and followed the girl out of the door. The miller came running in his nightshirt. Together, they tried to restrain the girl, but she kept breaking away from them and heading out of town.	paragraph ...
As she burned, Bloody Mary screamed a curse at the villagers. If anyone mentioned her name aloud before a mirror, she would send her spirit to revenge herself upon them for her terrible death. When she was dead, the villagers went to the house in the wood and found the unmarked graves of the little girls the evil witch had murdered. She had used their blood to make her young again.	paragraph ...
Then the little girls in the village began to disappear, one by one. No one could find out where they had gone. Grief-stricken families searched the woods, the local buildings, and all the houses and barns, but there was no sign of the missing girls. A few brave souls even went to Bloody Mary's home in the woods to see if the witch had taken the girls, but she denied any knowledge of the disappearances. Still, it was noted that her haggard appearance had changed. She looked younger, more attractive. The neighbours were suspicious, but they could find no proof that the witch had taken their young ones.	paragraph ...
From that day to this, anyone foolish enough to chant Bloody Mary's name three times before a darkened mirror will summon the vengeful spirit of the witch. It is said that she will tear their bodies to pieces and rip their souls from their mutilated bodies. The souls of these unfortunate ones will burn in torment as Bloody Mary once was burned, and they will be trapped forever in the mirror.	paragraph ...
The townsmen grabbed their guns and their pitchforks and ran toward the witch. When she heard the commotion, Bloody Mary broke off her spell and fled back into the woods. The far-sighted farmer had loaded his gun with silver bullets in case the witch ever came after his daughter. Now he took aim and shot at her. The bullet hit Bloody Mary in the hip and she fell to the ground. The angry townsmen leapt upon her and carried her back into the field, where they built a huge bonfire and burned her at the stake.	paragraph ...

Make a summary of the story below.

Cinderella

Once upon a time, there lived an unhappy young girl. She was unhappy because her mother was dead, and her father had married another woman, a widow with two daughters. Her stepmother didn't like her. All the nice things, kind thoughts and loving touches were for her own daughters. Not just the kind thoughts and love, but also dresses, shoes, delicious food, comfy beds, as well as every home comfort. All this was laid on for her daughters. For the poor unhappy girl, there was nothing at all. No dresses, only her stepsisters' hand-me-downs. No lovely dishes, nothing but scraps. No nice rests and comfort. For she had to work hard all day, and only when evening came was she allowed to sit for a while by the fire, near the cinders. That is how she got her nickname, for everybody called her Cinderella. Cinderella used to spend long hours all alone talking to the cat. The cat said,

"Meow", which really meant, "Cheer up! You have something neither of your stepsisters have and that is beauty."

It was quite true. Cinderella, even dressed in rags with a dusty gray face from the cinders, she was a lovely girl. While her stepsisters, no matter how splendid and elegant their clothes, were still clumsy, lumpy and ugly and always would be.

One day, beautiful new dresses arrived at the house. A ball was to be held at Court and the stepsisters were getting ready to go to it. Cinderella, didn't even dare ask, "What about me?" for she knew very well what the answer to that would be:

"You? My dear girl, you're staying at home to wash the dishes, scrub the floors and turn down the beds for your stepsisters. They will come home tired and very sleepy." Cinderella sighed at the cat.

"Oh dear, I'm so unhappy!" and the cat murmured "Meow".

Suddenly something amazing happened. In the kitchen, where Cinderella was sitting all by herself, there was a burst of light and a fairy appeared.

"Don't be alarmed, Cinderella," said the fairy. "The wind blew me your sighs. I know you would love to go to the ball. And so you shall!"

"How can I, dressed in rags?" Cinderella replied. "The servants will turn me away!" The fairy smiled. With a flick of her magic wand, Cinderella found herself wearing the most beautiful dress, the loveliest ever seen in the realm.

“Now that we have settled the matter of the dress,” said the fairy, “we’ll need to get you a cart. A real lady would never go to a ball on foot!” “Quick! Get me a pumpkin!” she ordered.

“Oh of course,” said Cinderella, rushing away. Then the fairy turned to the cat.

“You, bring me seven mice!”

“Seven mice!” said the cat. “I didn’t know fairies ate mice too!”

“They’re not for eating, silly! Do as you are told! And, remember they must be alive!”

Cinderella soon returned with a fine pumpkin and the cat with seven mice he had caught in the cellar.

“Good!” exclaimed the fairy. With a flick of her magic wand... wonder of wonders! The pumpkin turned into a sparkling cart and the mice became six white horses, while the seventh mouse turned into a coachman, in a smart uniform and carrying a whip. Cinderella could hardly believe her eyes.

“I shall present you at Court. You will soon see that the Prince, in whose honour the ball is being held, will be enchanted by your loveliness. But remember! You must leave the ball at midnight and come home. For that is when the spell ends. Your cart will turn back into a pumpkin, the horses will become mice again and the coachman will turn back into a mouse and you will be dressed again in rags and wearing clogs instead of these beautiful slippers! Do you understand?” Cinderella smiled and said, “Yes, I understand!”

When Cinderella entered the ballroom at the palace, a hush fell. Everyone stopped in mid-sentence to admire her elegance, her beauty and grace.

“Who can that be?” people asked each other. The two stepsisters also wondered who the newcomer was, for never in a month of Sundays, would they ever have guessed that the beautiful girl was really poor Cinderella who talked to the cat!

When the prince set eyes on Cinderella, he was struck by her beauty. Walking over to her, he bowed deeply and asked her to dance. And to the great disappointment of all the young ladies, he danced with Cinderella all evening.

“Who are you, fair maiden?” the Prince kept asking her. But Cinderella only replied:

“What does it matter who I am! You will never see me again anyway.”

“Oh, but I shall, I’m quite certain!” he replied.

Cinderella had a wonderful time at the ball. But, all of a sudden, she heard the sound of a clock: the first stroke of midnight! She remembered what the fairy had said, and without a word of goodbye she slipped from the Prince's arms and ran down the steps. As she ran she lost one of her slippers, but not for a moment did she dream of stopping to pick it up! If the last stroke of midnight were to sound... oh... what a disaster that would be! Out she fled and vanished into the night.

The Prince, who was now madly in love with her, picked up her slipper and said to his ministers,

"Go and search everywhere for the girl whose foot this slipper fits. I will never be content until I find her!" So the ministers tried the slipper on the foot of all the girls and on Cinderella's foot as well. Surprise! The slipper fitted perfectly.

"That awful untidy girl simply cannot have been at the ball," snapped the stepmother. "Tell the Prince he ought to marry one of my two daughters! Can't you see how ugly Cinderella is! Can't you see?"

Suddenly she broke off, for the fairy had appeared.

"That's enough!" she exclaimed, raising her magic stick. In a flash, Cinderella appeared in a splendid dress, shining with youth and beauty. Her stepmother and stepsisters gaped at her in amazement, and the ministers said,

"Come with us, fair maiden! The Prince awaits to present you with his engagement ring!" So Cinderella joyfully went with them, and lived happily ever after with her Prince. And as for the cat, he just said "Meow"!

Task 17

Study the rule below.

In the story of Cinderella in Task 16 you find sentences:

"Now that we have settled the matter of dress, ..."

"... and her father had married another woman, ..."

The first sentence is called Present Perfect and the second sentence is called Past Perfect.

Present Perfect have/has + V3

We use the present perfect to give new information or to announce a recent happening.

For example:

Denias has lived in Jakarta for seven years.

The students have not cleaned the classroom for days.

Past perfect had + V3

We use the past perfect to say something had already happened before this time.

For example:

Arnys had just got home when Virga phoned her.

Retno had seen The Calon Arang drama twice.

I drank too much last night got bills to pay
My head just feels in pain
I missed the bus and there'll be hell today
I'm late for work again
And even if I'm there
There'll all imply that
I might not last the day
And then you call me
And it's not so bad
It's not so bad

I want to thank you
For giving me the best day of my life
Oh just to be with you
Is having the best day of my life
Push the door, I'm home last
And I'm soaking through and through
Then you handed me a towel and all I see is you
And even if my house falls down now,
I wouldn't have a clue
Because you're near me and

There have been some songs about animals. One of them is a famous old song about a pet by Patti Page.

How Much is That Doggie in the Window

How much is that doggie in the window?

(arf! arf!)

The one with the waggle tail

How much is that doggie in the window?

(arf! arf!)

I do hope that doggie's for sale

I must take a trip to California

And leave my poor sweetheart alone

If he has a dog, he won't be lonesome

And the doggie will have a good home

I read in the paper there are robbers (roof! roof!)
With flashlights that shine in the dark
My love needs a doggie to protect him
And scare them away with one bark

I don't want a bunny or a kitty
I don't want a parrot that talks
I don't want a bowl of little fishies
He can't take a goldfish for a walk

How much is that doggie in the window? (arf! arf!)
The one with the waggle tail
How much is that doggie in the window?(arf! arf!)
I do hope that doggie's for sale

Lohan's Sentence to Visit Morgue

BEVERLY HILLS, California: Lindsay Lohan is about to see dead people.

In June, the 21-year-old actress will visit the morgue as part of her punishment for misdemeanour drunken driving.

"She's going to see bodies. We'll have anywhere from 20 to 50 people in the class and she's treated like any other individual," Los Angeles County Coroner's Assistant Chief Ed Winter said Friday.

Lohan was arrested twice last year on DUI charges and pleaded guilty in August to misdemeanour drunken driving and cocaine charges.

"The morgue visits include a walk-through of the service floor where autopsies are taking place along with the processing of the deceased. They also wind up seeing deceased people in our crypt," Winter said.

"It's to show them what reality is."

Chris Retains WBA Belt with TKO

Sunday, 27 January 2008

World Boxing Association featherweight champion Chris “the Dragon” John successfully defended his belt for the ninth time with a technical knockout of Roinet Caballero of Panama on Saturday at Bung Karno Indoor Stadium in Senayan, Central Jakarta.

Caballero’s ring threw in the towel before the start of the eighth round, signalling that their fighter was unable to continue.

Chris dominated the

Panamanian from the first round, with a combination of powerful punches and solid defence.

In the third round, Chris had several chances to floor the 24-year-old Caballero, connecting with hooks and upper cuts to the jaw of the challenger, who fired very little in reply.

Chris kept up the pressure and in the sixth round unleashed a flurry of punches to put the challenger down.

Caballero tried to fight back in the seventh round, but Chris' defence was simply too solid. The Panamanian was unable to continue the bout, which was scheduled for 12 rounds.

With the victory, Chris stretched his record to 47 wins, no defeats and one draw, with 21 KOs and one TKO.

Chris received Rp2 billion (US$215,000) for the fight, while Caballero earned Rp650 million.

On the undercard, lightweight Alex Bajawa of Indonesia was knocked out by Saddam Kietyongyuth of Thailand in the fifth round. Another Indonesian boxer, Andreas Seran, defeated Sam Setu of Samoa by KO in the first round of their scheduled four-round fight. (JP/dre/trw)

Asian Beach Games to cost Rp300 billion

Thursday, January 31, 2008

The first Asian Beach Games, which will be held in Bali from October 18-26, will cost an estimated Rp300 billion (around US$32 million), says National Sports Council (KONI) chairwoman Rita Subowo.

Rita said here Wednesday that the organizing committee and KONI would strive to secure the funding from the government and sponsors. "The Coordinating Ministry for the People's Welfare will provide Rp100 billion," Rita said. "A New Zealand apparel company has signed an agreement with the organizing company to provide a sponsorship of $1.5 million." Rita said she was hopeful KONI and the organizing committee would find other sponsors to cover the budget.

"We are still negotiating with local and other international companies to sponsor the tournament. Some of them probably will support us in cash, while some others will provide equipment, like computers," she said, adding that the organizing committee would use Ernst & Young as its financial adviser.

The Asian Beach Games is a multisport event that will be held every two years for athletes representing 45 countries from across Asia. A total of 17 sports disciplines, including beach soccer, volleyball, sepak takraw, jet skiing, surfing and sailing will be included in the Games.

To finance the training of Indonesian athletes participating in the event, Rita said the State Ministry for Youth and Sports Affairs would provide some Rp15 billion, which is not included in the Rp300 billion budget for organizing the Games. (trw)

Simon Stuns Taufik in Malaysia

The Jakarta Post, Friday, January 18, 2008

Indonesia's No. 1 Taufik Hidayat saw his hopes of collecting the first title this year dashed by his junior compatriot Simon Santoso in the second round of the US$200,000 Malaysia Open Super Series badminton tournament in Kuala Lumpur on Thursday.

The 2004 Olympic gold medallist was routed by the fitter Simon in 40 minutes 21-18, 21-16. He refused to make any excuse. "There is no excuse for my bad performance today. I simply lost," he was quoted as saying by AFP.

With the victory, Simon advanced to the quarterfinals to take on top seed Lee Chong Wei of Malaysia. Lee secured semi final berth after beating Przemyslaw Wacha of Poland 21-5, 15-21, 21-8 in 43 minutes. Lee has beaten Simon twice, the last time was at the French Super Series last November where he also became the eventual winner. Simon is the lone prospect for Indonesia in men's singles after Andre Kurniawan Tedjono fell to eighth seed Chen Yu of China 13-21, 9-21.

In mixed doubles, world champion Nova Widianto and Lilyana Natsir took another step toward the quarterfinals after beating German's pair Ingo Kindervater and Kathrin Piotrowski 21-11, 21-23, 21-19. They will play Korean duo Lee Yong Dae and Lee Hyo Jung in the quarterfinal. The Korean pair defeated Danish duo Thomas Laybourn and Kamilla Rytter Juhl 21-15, 20-22, 21-19. This would be the first encounter for the Indonesians and the Koreans.

"They are a new pair. Korea has repeatedly made changes in their doubles pairings. We never met them before," Nova said as quoted by Antara. "It will be an interesting game. But, we are optimistic to win the match," he said.

Meanwhile, Indonesia also saw its best prospects in women's doubles tumble during the second round of the tournament. Jo Novita and Greysia Polii were trounced by Korean pair Lee Won Kyung and Lee Hyo Jung 18-21, 10-21 in 41 minutes, while teammates Lilyana Natsir and Vita Marissa fell to Miyuki Maeda and Satoko Suetsuna of Japan 19-21, 16-21 in 45 minutes.

Questions 14 – 20 are based on the following text.

The White Butterfly

An old man named Takahama lived in a little house behind the cemetery of the temple of Sozanji. He was extremely friendly and generally liked by his neighbours, though most of them considered him a little mad. That was because he was very old but he did not want to get married. He did not have the desire for intimate relationship with women.

One summer day he became very ill, so ill, in fact, that he sent for his sister-in-law and her son. They both came and did all they could to bring comfort during his last hours. While Takahama fell asleep, they watched a large white butterfly flew into the room and rested on the old man's pillow. The young man tried to drive it away with a fan; but it came back three times, as if it was very loath to leave the sufferer.

At last Takahama's nephew chased it out into the garden, through the gate, and into the cemetery beyond, where it lingered over a woman's tomb, and then mysteriously disappeared. On examining the tomb the young man found the name "Akiko" written upon it, together with a description narrating how Akiko died when she was eighteen. Though the tomb was covered with moss and must have been erected fifty years previously, the boy saw that it was surrounded with flowers, and that the little water tank had been recently filled.

When the young man returned to the house he found that Takahama had passed away, and he returned to his mother and told her what he had seen in the cemetery.

"Akiko?" murmured his mother. "When your uncle was young he was betrothed to Akiko. She died shortly before her wedding day. When Akiko left this world your uncle resolved never to marry, and to live ever near her grave. For all these years he has remained faithful to his vow, and kept in his heart all the sweet memories of his one and only love. Every day Takahama went to the cemetery, whether the air was fragrant with summer breeze or thick with falling snow. Every day he went to her grave and prayed for her happiness, swept the tomb and set flowers there. When Takahama was dying, and he could no longer perform his loving task, Akiko came for him. That white butterfly was her sweet and loving soul."

He is plump. He's about 168 cm tall. His weight is 80 kg. That's why we call him "The Big Jo". He has a round face with brown eyes. His spiky hairstyle makes him easily recognized. Jo is a humorous, friendly and an easy going person. He is a movie freak. He would never miss any new movie in the cinema. He dreams of becoming a famous actor one day.

About me? Well, my name is Hana. I'm the shortest one among them. I'm about 160 cm tall. I have long wavy hair with round face. My friends call me "The Chubby Hana" because I also have a chubby cheek. Most people, even my parents say that I'm a careful, generous and diligent person. They also say that I'm a bit sensitive. UNIT II I'M SORRY TO HEAR THAT

- Denias : Hi, Retno.
Retno : Hi, Denias.
Denias : You were absent for two days. Where were you?
Retno : My family and I went to my cousin's wedding party.
Denias : I see. Where was it?
Retno : It was in Surabaya. It took five hours to get there.
Denias : How was the party?
Retno : It was great, but there was something bad that happened.
Denias : Really? What was that?
Retno : The bride fainted after the party was over.
Denias : Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. Was she sick?
Retno : Actually, she was not. She was just too tired. Fortunately, she soon recovered.
Denias : That's good. Anyway, the bell is ringing. Let's go back to the class.
Retno : Okay.

Task 10

Last year, my family and I visited our relatives in Greece. We flew to Athens via Singapore. After two hours from Athens, we arrived in Hydra where our relatives were. The interesting thing about Hydra is that no vehicle allowed. We have to walk to get anywhere. People often get around on horses or mules. After Hydra, we visited Satorini by ferry. Then we took a high speed catamaran to Mykonos. At least in Mykonos they have taxis and buses so we did not have to walk to go everywhere. From Mykonos we flew to the island of Skiathos where we spent a lovely week visiting beaches and eating wonderful Greek food. Finally it was time to go back to Athens and end our trip. After wandering around the old part of the city and taking lots of photos of the Acropolis and other ancient Greek monuments and statues, we had to get my taxi to the airport.

UNIT III THAT SOUNDS A NICE IDEA

Task 3

1. First, prepare all the ingredients.
2. Next, slightly beat eggs and mix with flour and half cup of water.
3. Then, mash bananas with fork and mix thoroughly with flour and egg mixture.
4. After that, deep-fry bananas and flour mixture in hot oil until golden brown.
5. Finally, drain on absorbent paper and dust with cheese.
6. The Fried Bananas with Cheese are ready to serve.

Task 4

- Ayu : This afternoon I'd like to practise making fried rice. Would you like to come to my house to help me?
- Retno : That sounds a nice idea. However, I don't think I can cook.
- Ayu : Don't worry. We'll learn together how to cook fried rice.
- Retno : Would you tell me how to do it before practising?
- Ayu : Sure, let me tell you. First, prepare the spices, egg, and cooked rice. Grind some garlic, chilli, and salt. Then, cut some onions into very thin pieces. Fry them together until it smells good. After that, add the egg and scramble them together. Finally, fry them together with the cooked rice until they are well mixed.
- Retno : And then you have your fried rice done.
- Ayu : Right.
- Retno : That sounds easy. I can't wait to practise it.
- Ayu : Neither can I. By the way, do you want me to pick you up?
- Retno : No, thank you.

- Denias : Yes, I do.

- Denias : Well, the Kebab originated in Turkey. It is a staple food there.
- Arnys : What kind of food is it?
- Denias : It is made of sliced roasted meat served with fresh vegetables and wrapped in Lebanese bread with a choice of sauces.
- Arnys : Hmm ... It sounds delicious.
- Denias : Yes, it is. Anyway, let me invite you to try it. Would tomorrow be possible?
- Arnys : Sure, that will be fine.

Task 6

- Virga : Ayu, have you ever made your own pizza?
- Ayu : No, I haven't. What about you?
- Virga : I haven't either. Anyway, I'd like to invite you to practise making pizza.
- Ayu : Really? Where?
- Virga : Well, it's going to be in my aunt's kitchen.
- Ayu : So, she's going to teach us.
- Virga : No, she's not actually. We'll only use my recipe book.
- Ayu : Are you sure? That's going to be challenging.
- Virga : So, would tomorrow at 2 p.m. be possible?

- Ayu : I'm afraid I can't. I will be attending my music course.
Virga : How about at 4 p.m.?
Ayu : Great, it's a perfect time.

Task 11

Making Crab Soup

Making crab soup is not difficult. What you need are 2 liters of fish stock, 2 medium-sized crabs, 100 gram ginger, 50 gram scallions, 50 gram Indonesian parsley, salt, and pepper to taste. First, make fish stock by boiling fish bones in 8 cups of water. Then remove these bones after a few minutes. Wash the crabs, split into several parts. Cut ginger into very thin slices, the scallions and Indonesian parsley. After that, heat stock for about 5 minutes, put everything into the stock. Finally, add salt and pepper to taste.

Task 10

Brawijaya, the king of Majapahit, had a beautiful daughter named Roro Anteng. Later she got married to a priest named Joko Seger. Because of an unfortunate situation, they were forced to leave the kingdom. They settled an area in the mountain named Tengger.

They were unhappy because they did not have a child. They climbed the peak of the mountain and prayed to the gods. Betara Bromo promised them many children with one condition: they would have to sacrifice their youngest child. They finally had twenty-five children. However, they broke their promise to sacrifice the youngest, Kesuma. Suddenly, an eruption occurred and Kesuma fell into the crater. His voice was heard saying, "I have to be sacrificed so that you will all live. From now on you should arrange an annual ceremony on the 14th of Kesodo."

Kesuma's brothers and sisters held the offering ceremony every year by offering fruits, vegetables, rice and meats. This ceremony is still held today as a Kesada ceremony.

Task 8

Blue Hen's Chicks retold by S. E. Schlosser

A Delaware man went to war during the American Revolution. For entertainment, he brought with him two fighting cocks. When asked about these chickens, the soldier said slyly: "They are the chick's of a blue hen I have at home."

Well, these cocks could fight! They were so fierce, they caused quite a stir among the men. It did not take long for the Delaware troops to begin boasting among the troops from the other states that they could out-fight anyone, just like those famous fighting cocks. "We're the Blue Hen's Chickens. We will fight to the end!" became the theme of the Delaware troops. The other troops took to calling the men from Delaware "The Blue Hen's Chicks", and to this day, Delaware is known as the Blue Hen State.

After he was hospitalized last August, Wilson dropped out of his summer's comedy Tropic Thunder, which already had been in production. He was replaced by Mathew McConaughey.

Sentul to host first Speedcar race

Saturday, January 26, 2008

The Jakarta Post, Jakarta

Indonesia will play host to the first series of the US$3 million Speedcar Championships. The Indonesian races will take place at the Sentul International Circuit in Bogor, West Java, from Feb. 16 to 17. Indonesia will field its drivers Ananda Mikola and Moreno Soeprapto in the race.

Moreno said he hoped he would benefit from the home crowd and stand on the podium. He added that if he should manage to win the race, he would be able to attract more sponsors to help finance him in higher budget Formula races in the future.

The Speedcar series will feature 24 drivers behind their eight-valve cars with 620 horsepower, similar to the ones used in Nascar. Physically and skill wise, it's more demanding than Formula 1 as it is heavier. Speedcars weigh 1,300 kg, compared to the 600-kg Formula car.

Moreno and Ananda will race against a number of world-class drivers, including former Formula 1 drivers Jean Alessi and Johnny Herbert, in the races.

The speedcar championships, held in partnership with GP2 Asia, will award the winner US$600,000. The next series will be held in Malaysia, Bahrain and Dubai. (dre)

Kata Pengantar

Puji syukur kami panjatkan kepada Tuhan Yang Maha Esa yang telah memberi hidayah, kekuatan, kesehatan, dan ketabahan kepada kami sehingga penyusunan bahan ajar seri Interlanguage: English for Senior High School Students ini terselesaikan.

Bahan ajar ini disusun dengan tujuan menyediakan materi pembelajaran Bahasa Inggris untuk peserta didik kelas X sesuai dengan Standar Isi mata pelajaran Bahasa Inggris 2006. Materi dan tugas pembelajaran dikembangkan dengan prinsip-prinsip Communicative Approach untuk secara terintegrasi mengembangkan kompetensi peserta didik dalam keempat keterampilan berbahasa, yaitu menyimak, berbicara, membaca, dan menulis. Selain itu materi dan tugas pembelajaran secara terpadu mengembangkan kecakapan hidup dalam arti luas dan peningkatan wawasan kebinekaan.

Materi dan tugas-tugas pembelajaran dalam bahan ajar ini diorganisasikan ke dalam dua siklus pembelajaran, yaitu siklus lisan dan siklus tulis. Sementara siklus lisan menekankan pengembangan keterampilan berbahasa lisan (menyimak dan berbicara), siklus tulis mengembangkan keterampilan dalam berbahasa tulis (membaca dan menulis). Sesuai dengan prinsip keterpaduan dalam pembelajaran bahasa, kedua siklus tersebut mengembangkan keempat keterampilan berbahasa secara terintegrasi. Baik siklus lisan maupun siklus tulis tersusun atas empat macam kegiatan pembelajaran, yaitu pembuka, pajanan terhadap bahasa target, penjelasan mengenai unsur-unsur kebahasaan, dan latihan berkomunikasi dalam bahasa target secara terbimbing maupun bebas. Selain itu, untuk keperluan pengayaan dan evaluasi, setiap unit dilengkapi dengan tugas terstruktur berupa pekerjaan rumah dan review.

Kegiatan-kegiatan belajar dikembangkan untuk menjadikan siswa secara aktif belajar Bahasa Inggris melalui kegiatan memahami dan menggunakan bahasa Inggris untuk mengekspresikan gagasan dan perasaan secara alami. Dalam pembelajaran, guru diharapkan bertindak sebagai fasilitator, pemberi umpan balik, dan pendorong siswa agar berani menggunakan bahasa target untuk berkomunikasi secara akurat dan berterima.

Penyusunan buku ajar ini terselesaikan atas dukungan dari berbagai pihak. Oleh karena itu, kami mengucapkan terima kasih kepada semua pihak yang telah membantu terselesaikannya penyusunan buku ini.

Walaupun kami telah menyusun bahan ajar ini dengan upaya yang sungguh-sungguh, karena berbagai keterbatasan kami, buku ini masih memiliki sejumlah kekurangan. Sehubungan dengan hal tersebut, kami mengharapkan masukan dari berbagai pihak, terutama guru dan siswa pengguna buku ini, untuk perbaikan lebih lanjut.

Joining the Traditional Dance Competition

I joined the Traditional Dance Competition in Jakarta last year. I represented my Junior High School. It was my biggest competition. I practised hard with my teacher for a month. We also prepared the best costume we had.

We only had one day in Jakarta. We went there by plane. We left at 6 a.m. and arrived in Jakarta at 7 a.m. We took a taxi to take us to the place where the competition was held. It took an hour to get there. There were already some participants when we arrived. The competition would start in an hour.

First, my teacher and I went to the dressing room. My teacher helped me do the make-up and the costume. We spent almost an hour for the preparation. I told my teacher that I was really nervous. I was not ready for this. However, she told me that everything was alright, and I felt better.

Then, the time came for me to perform on stage. There were five judges and about two hundred people watching me. However, I did not feel nervous anymore. I performed on the stage confidently. I really did the best I could. I was glad when it ended smoothly.

After that, we waited for the announcement of the result. It was 4 p.m. when the judges finished making their final decision. I was so impatient to hear the result. I still could not believe when they called my name as the first winner. I was so happy to be given the trophy. My teacher was also proud of my achievement. Finally, we went back to Yogyakarta in the evening. We were so tired. However, we were satisfied because our effort was not useless.

Swimming

When I was a boy, I liked swimming very much. Each year my two brothers and I spent the holiday with our uncle and aunt in their house by the sea. It was only twenty yards from the water. The water was warm, the sun shone brightly, and most days there were no waves. In the middle of the day a wind always began to blow, but it was not strong and did not make the sea rough.

One day, we put on our swimming-shorts before breakfast. Then, we ran down to the sea across the sand and jumped in. We were in the sea or on the beach until late at night. When our aunt rang a bell, we went back to the house for food, but we ate it in our swimming-shorts and soon went back in the sea again. We were all very good swimmers. We dived through the waves or rode towards the beach on top of them until we were tired and hungry.

My Grandpa's Funeral in Toraja

Last month my family and I went to Toraja to attend Grandpa's funeral. It was my first time to go to such a ceremony. We gathered there with our kin in the ceremony.

Overall, the ceremony was quite elaborate. It took about a week. Several days before the ceremony was done, grandpa's body was kept in a series of houses arranged in a circular row around an open field called tongkonan. His corpse was dressed in a fine wearing.

The funeral was performed in two phases. First, we slaughtered the pigs and buffaloes, and then moved the corpse to face north. In this ceremony we wore black clothes. After that, the corpse was placed in a sandal wood coffin. Then, it was brought out of the house and placed on an open platform beneath the granary. Meanwhile, my uncle, my brother, and I prepared the wooden puppet and a funeral tower called lakian. The next phase of the ceremony was held in this place. The coffin is borne from the house and placed in the lakian. During the day, there were also buffalo matches. They were great matches. In the night, we were feasting, chanting, and dancing.

On the last day, the grandpa's coffin were lowered from the funeral tower and brought up to the mountain side family graveyard. It was followed by great shouting and excitement from the relatives and the guests. Finally, we installed the wooden puppet on a high balcony where other puppets representing the members of a whole family were already there.

The funeral ceremonies made my family and me tired. However, we were grateful because it ran smoothly.

In the text, you find words and phrases used to start, connect a sentence with the next one, and end your composition. Those words and phrases are:

- First,
- Then,
- After that,
- Finally,

In the following morning, Ijab Ceremony (religious marriage consecration) was held. I sat right behind the bride. I really didn't want to miss this moment because it is the most important phase in the wedding. After Ijab , there were some Javanese ceremonies following the wedding celebration. They were Panggih , Balangan Suruh , Wiji Dadi , Sindur Binayang , Timbang , Tanem , Tukar Kalpika , Kacar Kucur , Dahar Klimah , Sungkeman and Mertui Ceremony. I was too busy in the reception table so I did not follow all of those ceremonies.	Paragraph
The very first ceremony was Siraman (bathing ceremony). Siraman means to take a bath. The Siraman ceremony was organized in the afternoon. I was also involved in preparing the place and the stuffs needed. After the Siraman , the bride was led to the wedding room. She was dressed with a traditional woman's blouse (kebaya) and batik clothes. Make-up was put on her by a traditional make-up woman who led the whole ceremony. The bride looked very beautiful.	Paragraph
I went back home in the evening by the last train. I went happily because I could attend my cousin's wedding even helped the preparation.	Paragraph
Two weeks ago I went to Semarang to attend my cousin's wedding. I was there for four days. I was involved in the preparation of the wedding ceremony. Like other Javanese wedding ceremonies, it has several complicated traditional rituals.	Paragraph
The next ceremony was Peningsetan or Srah Srahan (traditional engagement ceremony). The family of the would-be-bridegroom visited the parents and the family of the would-be-bride. They were bringing some gifts. After this ceremony, I helped the women in the backyard. We packed the snacks for the party in the morning.	Paragraph

The second ceremony was Midodareni (ceremony on the eve before the wedding). The bride had to stay in the room from 6 p.m. to midnight accompanied by some elder women giving her useful advice. My other cousins and I also visited her for a while.	Paragraph
After the wedding rituals, the reception followed. The newly wed couple received blessings and greetings from the guests. The newly wed couple looked very happy although they couldn't hide their tired faces.	Paragraph

Good choices are local and regional arts and crafts, books, candies, specialty foods and wine or spirits (if you are certain that the recipient drinks).

Don't you worry
There's a gap in the fence down by the nature preserve

Hey, such a lovely day, such a lovely day
Such fun, looking at the lovers in a lay-by with my little one

I'm sorry to hear the news today
Don't you worry
There's been a speeding disaster so we'll go
I'm so sorry to hear about the scene
Don't you worry

Just put on your trainers and get out of it with me
Hey, such a lovely day, such a lovely day
Such fun, looking at the lovers in a lay-by with my little one
Hey, such a lovely day, such a lovely day

Such fun, looking at the lorries in the litter with my lovely one

The Sweet Ginger Coconut Coffee (Bajigur)

This afternoon I went to my aunt's house. She was making a Ginger Coconut Coffee. I have never drunk this kind of beverage before. I helped her make it. It wasn't difficult to make it. I'll tell you the recipe. First, you have to prepare the ingredients. What you need are 1 inch fresh ginger, sliced thinly, 1/2 tsp, grated fresh nutmeg, 1 stick cinnamon, 2 cloves, 1 inch lemon grass, minced, 4 tbs. Coffee, powdered, 1 cup coconut milk, 2 tbs. palm sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt, 4 tbs young coconut flesh. When those ingredients are already in front of you, you have to heat the ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves and lemon grass in 3 cup water. Then, simmer lightly for 10 minutes. After that, turn off the heat, add the ground coffee and allow steeping for a few minutes. Strain the solids from this liquid and add the coconut milk, palm sugar and salt. Simmer gently for 2 minutes. Finally, add the coconut flesh and a sprinkle of nutmeg on top. Well, that's all and you'll have your sweet Ginger Coconut Coffee!

Kyai Jegod

Once upon a time there was a king who ruled Mataram Kingdom. His name is Amangkurat IV. He was the grandfather of Sultan. He often meditated in a nearby forest, called Garjitawati.

One day, when a gardener was gathering grass for his cattle in the forest, he looked for some water because it was so hot. He found a small pond and when he was going to drink some water from it, a dragon came out of the underwater, but it was so friendly to him. The dragon said that if Sultan wanted to build his palace, it was supposed to be located in that forest. Then it disappeared.

Then Sultan started to build the palace in that forest. He demanded strong and old woods and the forest where those woods lied was said to be home of genies and spirits. His lumberjacks could not find anything to eat and the only thing they could have were some rice and water for three days, or sometimes they could not have anything.

Then Sultan ordered that the main pole in the palace's hall had to be built from special wood, which would give strong impression. One night, a servant who was sleeping in the forest heard loud and deep voice. The voice introduced itself as Kyai Jegod. The servant saw that Kyai Jegod was an old, tall, and massive tree. He said that he would voluntarily let himself be cut to make the main pole so that he could stay inside it forever.

Task 23

Make a summary of the story entitled Princess Loro Jonggrang below.

The Legend of Princess Loro Jonggrang

Once upon a time in Java Island, especially in Prambanan, there were two Hindu kingdoms, they were Pengging and Kraton Boko. Pengging Kingdom was a prosperous and wealthy kingdom led by a wise king named Prabu Damar Moyo who had a son named Raden Bandung Bondowoso.

Kraton Boko was a part of Pengging Kingdom jurisdiction led by a cruel king that was not a man but a giant who was a man eater, named Prabu Boko. However, Prabu Boko had a very beautiful daughter named Princess Loro Jonggrang. Prabu Boko also had a minister named Patih Gupolo that was a giant too. Prabu Boko had a desire to revolt and had control over Pengging Kingdom. Therefore, together with Patih Boko, they gathered the power by training men to become soldiers and collected goods from civil people as provisions.

After having enough preparation, Prabu Boko and all soldiers went to Pengging Kingdom to revolt. Then the war between Pengging and Boko Soldier happened in Pengging kingdom. A lot of soldiers died from both sides. People of Pengging became poor and suffered from starvation.

Knowing that his people were suffering and there were lots of soldiers died, Prabu Damar Moyo sent his son, Raden Bandung Bondowoso to have a battle with Prabu Boko. The fighting between Raden Bandung Bondowoso and Prabu Boko was very furious. Because of the power of Raden Bandung Bondowoso, Prabu Boko can be defeated, and then he died. When Patih Gupalo found out that his king died, he ran away from the battle. Raden Bandung Bondowoso chased him to Kraton Boko.

After he arrived at Kraton Boko, Patih Gupalo reported to Princess Loro Jonggrang that her father died in the battle, that he was killed by a Pengging knight named Raden Bandung Bondowoso. Then the princess cried, she was very sad because of the death of her father.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso finally arrived at Kraton Boko. He was surprised when he saw Princess Loro Jonggrang, She was very beautiful so he proposed her to become his wife. However, Princess Loro Jonggrang did not want to marry Raden Bandung Bondowoso because he killed her father. To refuse his proposal, Princess Loro Jonggrang had a strategy. She had two requests that should be fulfilled by Raden Bandung Bondowoso so that she would agree to marry him. First, she asked him to make Jalatunda well. Then, she asked him to make 1000 temples in one night.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso accepted the requests. Immediately he started to make Jalatunda well and asked Princess Loro Jonggrang to see it. Then, Princess Loro Jonggrang asked Raden Bandung Bondowoso to go into the well, and after that she ordered Patih Gupolo to pile up the well with stone. Both Princess Loro Jonggrang and Patih Gupolo thought that Raden Bandung Bondowoso already died in the well. However, Raden Bandung Bondowoso was still alive. He meditated and finally he could get out from the well safely.

Raden Bandung Bondowoso was very angry with Princess Loro Jonggrang. However, because of her beauty, he soon forgot about his anger. After that, Princess Loro Jonggrang asked Raden Bandung Bondowoso to do the second request which was to make 1000 temples in one night. Therefore Raden Bandung Bondowoso commanded genies to make the temples immediately. However Princess Loro Jonggrang intended to foil his effort to make the temples. She ordered the girls to pound and burn stubbles, so that the sky looked bright as if the morning had come. That made the cocks crow loudly.

Hearing the cocks crowing, people pounding rice, and seeing the brightness in the east, the genies stopped making temples. Genies reported to Raden Bandung Bondowoso that they could not continue building the temples because the morning had come. Raden Bandung Bondowoso got the feeling that the morning had not come yet. He asked Princess Loro Jonggrang to count the amount of the temples. The total was only 999 temples, so there was still 1 temple left. Therefore, Princess Loro Jonggrang refused to marry Raden Bandung Bondowoso. Feeling deceived, Raden Bandung Bondowoso was very angry and cursed her, "Loro Jonggrang, there is only 1 temple left, let you be the one to make it complete". It was a miracle that suddenly Princess Loro Jonggrang transformed to a stone statue.

Until today, the stone statue of Princess Loro Jonggrang is still in Candi Prambanan and Raden Bandung Bondowoso cursed the girls around Prambanan area to become old virgins because they helped Princess Loro Jonggrang. Based on what is believed by old people, the couple who are dating in Prambanan temple will break up.

Cultural Tips

When you are doing business in the United States, you must be on time. Americans view someone being late as rude, showing a lack of respect and having sloppy, undisciplined personal habits. Being "on time" in business situations generally means being about five minutes early. Five minutes late is acceptable with a brief apology. Ten to fifteen minutes late requires a phone call to warn of the delay and to apologize.

The Football Match

My brother and I went to a football match yesterday. Our school team was playing against another High School team. Our team wore red and white shirts, white shorts, and red stockings. The other team wore orange and black shirts, orange shorts, and black stockings. "They look like bees", my brother said, and we laughed.

They played like bees too. They ran very fast, attacked very hard, and passed the ball to each other very fast. Soon they scored their first goal. My brother and I shouted and shouted, "Come on, Valley School! Come on, the Valleys!" Our headmaster was near us and he was shouting too. He seemed very enthusiastic. However, the high school scored another goal. We were very sad.

Then, one of the "bees" stopped the ball with one of his hands, so our team got the free kick. Our captain took it and scored a goal. We shouted, "Hooray!" The score was now 2:1. That was better.

Now our team began to play better—or the "bees" were getting tired. Our team scored another goal before half-time. In the second half of the match, both teams tried very hard, but neither scored, so at the end the score was still two all.

Queen Aji Bidara Putih

Muara Kaman lies along the Mahakam River, in eastern Borneo. In the past the area was a kingdom ruled by Queen Aji Bidara Putih. She was a typical queen of myths: beautiful, wise, and sensitive. Many princes and kings proposed to her but she always refused them because she was more concerned with ruling her country and guarding her people.

One day, a Chinese boat came to eastern Borneo. First, the people thought it was a merchant ship but the boat was loaded with trade goods and highly trained soldiers. Their envoys brought gold and porcelain to announce the marriage proposal from a prince of China. The queen didn't refuse instantly and replied that she had to ponder the proposal first. After the envoys left the palace, the queen called a court officer and ordered him to infiltrate the Chinese boat to gather information on the prince.

When night fell the officer sneaked onto the boat, got by all the guards, and finally found the prince's room. The large door would not open and he couldn't find a peek hole, so the officer put his ear to the wall, trying to catch sounds from inside. He heard that the prince was having his dinner and the noise of his chewing and slurping surprised the officer. It was like a boar that he had once heard when he was hunting.

He quickly left the boat and returned to the palace. He reported that the prince must have been a phantom, not a human. He believed that the phantom could be in a human's form only during the daytime. The queen was so surprised and got angry. On the next day, she refused his proposal.

The enraged prince ordered his troops to raid Muara Kaman. The battle was won by the prince's huge band of troops. As they drew near to the palace, Queen Aji Bidara Putih chewed a leaf of betel vine and sang a mantra while holding it. When she threw it at the Chinese troops, it turned to giant centipedes. The Chinese troops started to retreat but three centipedes chased them and sank the boat. The site of the sunken ship is now known as Danau Lipan (Lake of Centipedes), with Chinese treasures hidden on the lake's bed.

The Snow Bride

Many years ago, when great forests still covered the hills of Japan, a samurai named Hikaru lost his way in a sudden winter storm. Snow pellets sharp as spears pierced his cloak and drove him blindly into the deep woods.

Cold stalked him, and he had no weapon to battle this invisible enemy. Finally his horse burst into a clearing. The wind rattled the tree limbs, but no snow fell here. A wooden house squatted beside a huge camphor tree. The snow was a smooth white carpet. This quiet place seemed peaceful enough, but he sensed someone watching, waiting in silence.

A door opened. A white-haired woman studied him. Holding out her arms, she murmured, "Welcome, my lord. Enter and feel no fear."

Hikaru smiled. He had killed fear long ago. But his horse ran away from the tiny hut. The samurai pulled the reins and drove it forward until the horse reluctantly moved forward. He found a lean-to built on the side of the hut, sheltered on one side by the hut and on the other by the tree. When his mount discovered some hay, its hunger drove out all fear. He left the animal peacefully grazing and went to find his hostess.

The hut was simply furnished, though firelight created a golden sparkle off the dishes and cups she set before him. Where had this woman found such luxuries, he wondered as she silently served him.

After he had eaten, he fixed his eyes on her. "Who are you?"

She kept her gaze modestly lowered. "I am called Yuki, my lord. This place is my home."

Yuki glided around the room in a silken whisper. Gradually he became aware of how quiet the woods had become. "Are you not lonely here?"

Her lips quirked in a shadow of a smile. "You are here, my lord. As long as you are pleased with me, how could I be lonely?"

Time passed, but it was always winter. Hikaru forgot everything but the lovely woman who anticipated his wants. As soon as he thought, "I want – " Yuki was there, offering food and drink to fill his belly or song to soothe his soul. Yet men are never content. For a warrior, even an earthly paradise can become a wicked prison.

One day, Hikaru woke with anger. Nothing Yuki said or did pleased him.

Dashing dishes off the table, the tiny crashes echoed how he'd destroyed his enemies in the past. The memory inflamed his temper. Enough of this quiet and inaction! He could find that in death.

"My lord, tell me how I have displeased you. I – "

"You, woman!" he snapped. "You've kept me prisoner in this place far too long!"

He rushed to the door and flung it open. A cold breeze brushed his cheek. Yuki grasped his sleeve. "My lord! Do not leave!"

"Enough!" The samurai jerked from her grip. Rage boiled in his heart as he backhanded her. "Out of my way, woman!"

"As you wish." The mark of his hand seemed a dark bruise on her pale skin. "I will bother you no more." Head bowed, Yuki stepped aside. The door swung shut between them.

A low moan shuddered amongst the trees. Wind whipped his helm from his head and his cloak off his shoulders. Cold knifed his body, just beneath the heart.

"Yuki?" Blinded, Hikaru stumbled backwards, but tree bark scraped his questing hands. Where was the hut? It was cold, so cold.

Spring came late that year. Birdsong welcomed the sun's return. The golden fingers of the goddess Amateratsu caressed the still alabaster face of the sleeping man. But he never wakened. As she continued her journey across the sky, cherry trees covered the silken clad form with tiny pink-edged petals, a living blanket of snow.

Task 12

Rearrange the jumbled paragraphs of the story of Bloody Mary from Pennsylvania into a good text by numbering the paragraphs. Look at the example.

Once upon a time, there was a maiden lived deep in the forest in a tiny cottage. She sold herbal remedies for a living. Folks living in the town nearby called her Bloody Mary, and said she was a witch. None dared cross her cottage for fear that their cows would go dry, their food-stores rot away before winter, their children take sick of fever, or any number of terrible things that an angry witch could do to her neighbours.	paragraph 1
--	--------------------

The desperate cries of the miller and his wife woke the neighbours. They came to assist the frantic couple. Suddenly, a sharp-eyed farmer gave a shout and pointed towards a strange light at the edge of the woods. A few townsmen followed him out into the field and saw Bloody Mary standing beside a large oak tree, holding a magic stick that was pointed towards the miller's house. She was glowing with an unearthly light as she set her evil spell upon the miller's daughter.	paragraph ...
Then came the night when the daughter of the miller rose from her bed and walked outside, following an enchanted sound no one else could hear. The miller's wife had a toothache and was sitting up in the kitchen treating the tooth with an herbal remedy when her daughter left the house. She screamed for her husband and followed the girl out of the door. The miller came running in his nightshirt. Together, they tried to restrain the girl, but she kept breaking away from them and heading out of town.	paragraph ...
As she burned, Bloody Mary screamed a curse at the villagers. If anyone mentioned her name aloud before a mirror, she would send her spirit to revenge herself upon them for her terrible death. When she was dead, the villagers went to the house in the wood and found the unmarked graves of the little girls the evil witch had murdered. She had used their blood to make her young again.	paragraph ...
Then the little girls in the village began to disappear, one by one. No one could find out where they had gone. Grief-stricken families searched the woods, the local buildings, and all the houses and barns, but there was no sign of the missing girls. A few brave souls even went to Bloody Mary's home in the woods to see if the witch had taken the girls, but she denied any knowledge of the disappearances. Still, it was noted that her haggard appearance had changed. She looked younger, more attractive. The neighbours were suspicious, but they could find no proof that the witch had taken their young ones.	paragraph ...
From that day to this, anyone foolish enough to chant Bloody Mary's name three times before a darkened mirror will summon the vengeful spirit of the witch. It is said that she will tear their bodies to pieces and rip their souls from their mutilated bodies. The souls of these unfortunate ones will burn in torment as Bloody Mary once was burned, and they will be trapped forever in the mirror.	paragraph ...
The townsmen grabbed their guns and their pitchforks and ran toward the witch. When she heard the commotion, Bloody Mary broke off her spell and fled back into the woods. The far-sighted farmer had loaded his gun with silver bullets in case the witch ever came after his daughter. Now he took aim and shot at her. The bullet hit Bloody Mary in the hip and she fell to the ground. The angry townsmen leapt upon her and carried her back into the field, where they built a huge bonfire and burned her at the stake.	paragraph ...

Make a summary of the story below.

Cinderella

Once upon a time, there lived an unhappy young girl. She was unhappy because her mother was dead, and her father had married another woman, a widow with two daughters. Her stepmother didn't like her. All the nice things, kind thoughts and loving touches were for her own daughters. Not just the kind thoughts and love, but also dresses, shoes, delicious food, comfy beds, as well as every home comfort. All this was laid on for her daughters. For the poor unhappy girl, there was nothing at all. No dresses, only her stepsisters' hand-me-downs. No lovely dishes, nothing but scraps. No nice rests and comfort. For she had to work hard all day, and only when evening came was she allowed to sit for a while by the fire, near the cinders. That is how she got her nickname, for everybody called her Cinderella. Cinderella used to spend long hours all alone talking to the cat. The cat said,

"Meow", which really meant, "Cheer up! You have something neither of your stepsisters have and that is beauty."

It was quite true. Cinderella, even dressed in rags with a dusty gray face from the cinders, she was a lovely girl. While her stepsisters, no matter how splendid and elegant their clothes, were still clumsy, lumpy and ugly and always would be.

One day, beautiful new dresses arrived at the house. A ball was to be held at Court and the stepsisters were getting ready to go to it. Cinderella, didn't even dare ask, "What about me?" for she knew very well what the answer to that would be:

"You? My dear girl, you're staying at home to wash the dishes, scrub the floors and turn down the beds for your stepsisters. They will come home tired and very sleepy." Cinderella sighed at the cat.

"Oh dear, I'm so unhappy!" and the cat murmured "Meow".

Suddenly something amazing happened. In the kitchen, where Cinderella was sitting all by herself, there was a burst of light and a fairy appeared.

"Don't be alarmed, Cinderella," said the fairy. "The wind blew me your sighs. I know you would love to go to the ball. And so you shall!"

"How can I, dressed in rags?" Cinderella replied. "The servants will turn me away!" The fairy smiled. With a flick of her magic wand, Cinderella found herself wearing the most beautiful dress, the loveliest ever seen in the realm.

“Now that we have settled the matter of the dress,” said the fairy, “we’ll need to get you a cart. A real lady would never go to a ball on foot!” “Quick! Get me a pumpkin!” she ordered.

“Oh of course,” said Cinderella, rushing away. Then the fairy turned to the cat.

“You, bring me seven mice!”

“Seven mice!” said the cat. “I didn’t know fairies ate mice too!”

“They’re not for eating, silly! Do as you are told! And, remember they must be alive!”

Cinderella soon returned with a fine pumpkin and the cat with seven mice he had caught in the cellar.

“Good!” exclaimed the fairy. With a flick of her magic wand... wonder of wonders! The pumpkin turned into a sparkling cart and the mice became six white horses, while the seventh mouse turned into a coachman, in a smart uniform and carrying a whip. Cinderella could hardly believe her eyes.

“I shall present you at Court. You will soon see that the Prince, in whose honour the ball is being held, will be enchanted by your loveliness. But remember! You must leave the ball at midnight and come home. For that is when the spell ends. Your cart will turn back into a pumpkin, the horses will become mice again and the coachman will turn back into a mouse and you will be dressed again in rags and wearing clogs instead of these beautiful slippers! Do you understand?” Cinderella smiled and said, “Yes, I understand!”

When Cinderella entered the ballroom at the palace, a hush fell. Everyone stopped in mid-sentence to admire her elegance, her beauty and grace.

“Who can that be?” people asked each other. The two stepsisters also wondered who the newcomer was, for never in a month of Sundays, would they ever have guessed that the beautiful girl was really poor Cinderella who talked to the cat!

When the prince set eyes on Cinderella, he was struck by her beauty. Walking over to her, he bowed deeply and asked her to dance. And to the great disappointment of all the young ladies, he danced with Cinderella all evening.

“Who are you, fair maiden?” the Prince kept asking her. But Cinderella only replied:

“What does it matter who I am! You will never see me again anyway.”

“Oh, but I shall, I’m quite certain!” he replied.

Cinderella had a wonderful time at the ball. But, all of a sudden, she heard the sound of a clock: the first stroke of midnight! She remembered what the fairy had said, and without a word of goodbye she slipped from the Prince's arms and ran down the steps. As she ran she lost one of her slippers, but not for a moment did she dream of stopping to pick it up! If the last stroke of midnight were to sound... oh... what a disaster that would be! Out she fled and vanished into the night.

The Prince, who was now madly in love with her, picked up her slipper and said to his ministers,

"Go and search everywhere for the girl whose foot this slipper fits. I will never be content until I find her!" So the ministers tried the slipper on the foot of all the girls and on Cinderella's foot as well. Surprise! The slipper fitted perfectly.

"That awful untidy girl simply cannot have been at the ball," snapped the stepmother. "Tell the Prince he ought to marry one of my two daughters! Can't you see how ugly Cinderella is! Can't you see?"

Suddenly she broke off, for the fairy had appeared.

"That's enough!" she exclaimed, raising her magic stick. In a flash, Cinderella appeared in a splendid dress, shining with youth and beauty. Her stepmother and stepsisters gaped at her in amazement, and the ministers said,

"Come with us, fair maiden! The Prince awaits to present you with his engagement ring!" So Cinderella joyfully went with them, and lived happily ever after with her Prince. And as for the cat, he just said "Meow"!

Task 17

Study the rule below.

In the story of Cinderella in Task 16 you find sentences:

"Now that we have settled the matter of dress, ..."

"... and her father had married another woman, ..."

The first sentence is called Present Perfect and the second sentence is called Past Perfect.

Present Perfect have/has + V3

We use the present perfect to give new information or to announce a recent happening.

For example:

Denias has lived in Jakarta for seven years.

The students have not cleaned the classroom for days.

Past perfect had + V3

We use the past perfect to say something had already happened before this time.

For example:

Arnys had just got home when Virga phoned her.

Retno had seen The Calon Arang drama twice.

And then you call me
And it's not so bad

I want to thank you
For giving me the best day of my life
Oh just to be with you

How Much is That Doggie in the Window

How much is that doggie in the window?

The one with the waggle tail

How much is that doggie in the window?

(arf! arf!)

I do hope that doggie's for sale

I must take a trip to California

And leave my poor sweetheart alone

If he has a dog, he won't be lonesome

And the doggie will have a good home

I read in the paper there are robbers (roof! roof!)
With flashlights that shine in the dark
My love needs a doggie to protect him
And scare them away with one bark

I don't want a bunny or a kitty
I don't want a parrot that talks
I don't want a bowl of little fishies
He can't take a goldfish for a walk

How much is that doggie in the window? (arf! arf!)

Lohan's Sentence to Visit Morgue

BEVERLY HILLS, California: Lindsay Lohan is about to see dead people.

In June, the 21-year-old actress will visit the morgue as part of her punishment for misdemeanour drunken driving.

"She's going to see bodies. We'll have anywhere from 20 to 50 people in the class and she's treated like any other individual," Los Angeles County Coroner's Assistant Chief Ed Winter said Friday.

Lohan was arrested twice last year on DUI charges and pleaded guilty in August to misdemeanour drunken driving and cocaine charges.

"The morgue visits include a walk-through of the service floor where autopsies are taking place along with the processing of the deceased. They also wind up seeing deceased people in our crypt," Winter said.

"It's to show them what reality is."

Chris Retains WBA Belt with TKO

Sunday, 27 January 2008

World Boxing Association featherweight champion Chris “the Dragon” John successfully defended his belt for the ninth time with a technical knockout of Roinet Caballero of Panama on Saturday at Bung Karno Indoor Stadium in Senayan, Central Jakarta.

Caballero’s ring threw in the towel before the start of the eighth round, signalling that their fighter was unable to continue.

Chris dominated the

Panamanian from the first round, with a combination of powerful punches and solid defence.

In the third round, Chris had several chances to floor the 24-year-old Caballero, connecting with hooks and upper cuts to the jaw of the challenger, who fired very little in reply.

Chris kept up the pressure and in the sixth round unleashed a flurry of punches to put the challenger down.

Caballero tried to fight back in the seventh round, but Chris' defence was simply too solid. The Panamanian was unable to continue the bout, which was scheduled for 12 rounds.

With the victory, Chris stretched his record to 47 wins, no defeats and one draw, with 21 KOs and one TKO.

Chris received Rp2 billion (US$215,000) for the fight, while Caballero earned Rp650 million.

On the undercard, lightweight Alex Bajawa of Indonesia was knocked out by Saddam Kietyongyuth of Thailand in the fifth round. Another Indonesian boxer, Andreas Seran, defeated Sam Setu of Samoa by KO in the first round of their scheduled four-round fight. (JP/dre/trw)

Asian Beach Games to cost Rp300 billion

The first Asian Beach Games, which will be held in Bali from October 18-26, will cost an estimated Rp300 billion (around US$32 million), says National Sports Council (KONI) chairwoman Rita Subowo.

Rita said here Wednesday that the organizing committee and KONI would strive to secure the funding from the government and sponsors. "The Coordinating Ministry for the People's Welfare will provide Rp100 billion," Rita said. "A New Zealand apparel company has signed an agreement with the organizing company to provide a sponsorship of $1.5 million." Rita said she was hopeful KONI and the organizing committee would find other sponsors to cover the budget.

"We are still negotiating with local and other international companies to sponsor the tournament. Some of them probably will support us in cash, while some others will provide equipment, like computers," she said, adding that the organizing committee would use Ernst & Young as its financial adviser.

The Asian Beach Games is a multisport event that will be held every two years for athletes representing 45 countries from across Asia. A total of 17 sports disciplines, including beach soccer, volleyball, sepak takraw, jet skiing, surfing and sailing will be included in the Games.

To finance the training of Indonesian athletes participating in the event, Rita said the State Ministry for Youth and Sports Affairs would provide some Rp15 billion, which is not included in the Rp300 billion budget for organizing the Games. (trw)

Simon Stuns Taufik in Malaysia

The Jakarta Post, Friday, January 18, 2008

Indonesia's No. 1 Taufik Hidayat saw his hopes of collecting the first title this year dashed by his junior compatriot Simon Santoso in the second round of the US$200,000 Malaysia Open Super Series badminton tournament in Kuala Lumpur on Thursday.

The 2004 Olympic gold medallist was routed by the fitter Simon in 40 minutes 21-18, 21-16. He refused to make any excuse. "There is no excuse for my bad performance today. I simply lost," he was quoted as saying by AFP.

With the victory, Simon advanced to the quarterfinals to take on top seed Lee Chong Wei of Malaysia. Lee secured semi final berth after beating Przemyslaw Wacha of Poland 21-5, 15-21, 21-8 in 43 minutes. Lee has beaten Simon twice, the last time was at the French Super Series last November where he also became the eventual winner. Simon is the lone prospect for Indonesia in men's singles after Andre Kurniawan Tedjono fell to eighth seed Chen Yu of China 13-21, 9-21.

In mixed doubles, world champion Nova Widianto and Lilyana Natsir took another step toward the quarterfinals after beating German's pair Ingo Kindervater and Kathrin Piotrowski 21-11, 21-23, 21-19. They will play Korean duo Lee Yong Dae and Lee Hyo Jung in the quarterfinal. The Korean pair defeated Danish duo Thomas Laybourn and Kamilla Rytter Juhl 21-15, 20-22, 21-19. This would be the first encounter for the Indonesians and the Koreans.

"They are a new pair. Korea has repeatedly made changes in their doubles pairings. We never met them before," Nova said as quoted by Antara. "It will be an interesting game. But, we are optimistic to win the match," he said.

Meanwhile, Indonesia also saw its best prospects in women's doubles tumble during the second round of the tournament. Jo Novita and Greysia Polii were trounced by Korean pair Lee Won Kyung and Lee Hyo Jung 18-21, 10-21 in 41 minutes, while teammates Lilyana Natsir and Vita Marissa fell to Miyuki Maeda and Satoko Suetsuna of Japan 19-21, 16-21 in 45 minutes.

Questions 14 – 20 are based on the following text.

The White Butterfly

An old man named Takahama lived in a little house behind the cemetery of the temple of Sozanji. He was extremely friendly and generally liked by his neighbours, though most of them considered him a little mad. That was because he was very old but he did not want to get married. He did not have the desire for intimate relationship with women.

One summer day he became very ill, so ill, in fact, that he sent for his sister-in-law and her son. They both came and did all they could to bring comfort during his last hours. While Takahama fell asleep, they watched a large white butterfly flew into the room and rested on the old man's pillow. The young man tried to drive it away with a fan; but it came back three times, as if it was very loath to leave the sufferer.

At last Takahama's nephew chased it out into the garden, through the gate, and into the cemetery beyond, where it lingered over a woman's tomb, and then mysteriously disappeared. On examining the tomb the young man found the name "Akiko" written upon it, together with a description narrating how Akiko died when she was eighteen. Though the tomb was covered with moss and must have been erected fifty years previously, the boy saw that it was surrounded with flowers, and that the little water tank had been recently filled.

When the young man returned to the house he found that Takahama had passed away, and he returned to his mother and told her what he had seen in the cemetery.

"Akiko?" murmured his mother. "When your uncle was young he was betrothed to Akiko. She died shortly before her wedding day. When Akiko left this world your uncle resolved never to marry, and to live ever near her grave. For all these years he has remained faithful to his vow, and kept in his heart all the sweet memories of his one and only love. Every day Takahama went to the cemetery, whether the air was fragrant with summer breeze or thick with falling snow. Every day he went to her grave and prayed for her happiness, swept the tomb and set flowers there. When Takahama was dying, and he could no longer perform his loving task, Akiko came for him. That white butterfly was her sweet and loving soul."

I'm so lucky because I have three best friends. They are Firsty, Ronald and Jonathan. We have known each other since we were four years old. We met in the kindergarten. Since then, we always go to the same school. Moreover, our houses are still in the same block. We do everything together. Our motto is "United we stand, divided we fall". It means "together we are stronger". Now, let me introduce my friends one by one.

Firsty is the youngest among us because she was born in December. We call her "The Sweetie Firsty". Her father is French. She is tall and slim. She's about 171 cm. She has long straight hair. Actually the color of her hair is blonde. However, she dyed her hair black since last year. She has beautiful blue eyes, an oval face and pointed nose. He won so many prizes on Math, Chemistry and Physics competition. However, his favourite subject is Chemistry. He wants to be a chemist someday.

Jonathan is a funny person. He can always find a way to make the people around him laugh. I wonder what it is in his head for he can create jokes spontaneously. Jonathan's nick name is Jo. He is plump. He's about 168 cm tall. His weight is 80 kg. That's why we call him "The Big Jo". He has a round face with brown eyes. His spiky hairstyle makes him easily recognized. Jo is a humorous, friendly and an easy going person. He is a movie freak. He would never miss any new movie in the cinema. He dreams of becoming a famous actor one day.

About me? Well, my name is Hana. I'm the shortest one among them. I'm about 160 cm tall. I have long wavy hair with round face. My friends call me "The Chubby Hana" because I also have a chubby cheek. Most people, even my parents say that I'm a careful, generous and diligent person. They also say that I'm a bit sensitive. I love painting. I spend much time in my small studio just painting.

That's all about me and friends of mine. Even though we are quite different, we love each other and will keep this relationship for good.

Denias : That's good. Anyway, the bell is ringing. Let's go back to the class.
Retno : Okay.

Task 10

Last year, my family and I visited our relatives in Greece. We flew to Athens via Singapore. After two hours from Athens, we arrived in Hydra where our relatives were. The interesting thing about Hydra is that no vehicle allowed. We have to walk to get anywhere. People often get around on horses or mules. After Hydra, we visited Satorini by ferry. Then we took a high speed catamaran to Mykonos. At least in Mykonos they have taxis and buses so we did not have to walk to go everywhere. From Mykonos we flew to the island of Skiathos where we spent a lovely week visiting beaches and eating wonderful Greek food. Finally it was time to go back to Athens and end our trip. After wandering around the old part of the city and taking lots of photos of the Acropolis and other ancient Greek monuments and statues, we had to get my taxi to the airport.

- Retno : That sounds a nice idea. However, I don't think I can cook.
- Ayu : Don't worry. We'll learn together how to cook fried rice.
- Retno : Would you tell me how to do it before practising?
- Ayu : Sure, let me tell you. First, prepare the spices, egg, and cooked rice. Grind some garlic, chilli, and salt. Then, cut some onions into very thin pieces. Fry them together until it smells good. After that, add the egg and scramble them together. Finally, fry them together with the cooked rice until they are well mixed.

They were unhappy because they did not have a child. They climbed the peak of the mountain and prayed to the gods. Betara Bromo promised them many children with one condition: they would have to sacrifice their youngest child. They finally had twenty-five children. However, they broke their promise to sacrifice the youngest, Kesuma. Suddenly, an eruption occurred and Kesuma fell into the crater. His voice was heard saying, "I have to be sacrificed so that you will all live. From now on you should arrange an annual ceremony on the 14th of Kesodo."

Kesuma's brothers and sisters held the offering ceremony every year by offering fruits, vegetables, rice and meats. This ceremony is still held today as a Kesada ceremony.

Adib : Two days ago I went to Bandung, and I found it in a small bookstore. By the way, why do you need it badly?
Retno: I really need this novel because I have limited sources to support my writing on Japanese folktales.

Task 8

Blue Hen's Chicks retold by S. E. Schlosser

A Delaware man went to war during the American Revolution. For entertainment, he brought with him two fighting cocks. When asked about these chickens, the soldier said slyly: "They are the chick's of a blue hen I have at home."

Well, these cocks could fight! They were so fierce, they caused quite a stir among the men. It did not take long for the Delaware troops to begin boasting among the troops from the other states that they could out-fight anyone, just like those famous fighting cocks. "We're the Blue Hen's Chickens. We will fight to the end!" became the theme of the Delaware troops. The other troops took to calling the men from Delaware "The Blue Hen's Chicks", and to this day, Delaware is known as the Blue Hen State.

Wilson returns after suicide attempt

The Jakarta Post
Thursday, February 21, 2008

Los Angeles: Owen Wilson is going back to work for the first time since his reported suicide attempt last summer.

Wilson, 39, and co-star Jennifer Aniston begin shooting March 10 on 20th Century Fox's Marley & Me, the studio said. It tells the tales of a couple who adopt a dog to give parenthood a trial run, then find the mischievous pooch more than they bargained for.

After he was hospitalized last August, Wilson dropped out of his summer's comedy Tropic Thunder, which already had been in production. He was replaced by Mathew McConaughey.

Due out Christmas Day, Marley & Me is directed by David Frankel and based on the book by John Grogan, Alan Arkin co-stars.

Task 3

Arnys : Very well, thanks. What about you?
Marcell : Not so bad, thanks.
Arnys : Have you read The Jakarta Post this morning?

Arnys : Bad news. Roy Marten was arrested again in a drug raid.
Marcell : Are you serious?
Arnys : Yeah, I'm not kidding.
Marcell : He was once jailed for nine months for drug abuse. I thought he would learn a lesson from that. When did it happen and how?
Arnys : Roy was arrested on early Tuesday morning. He was apprehended together with an alleged drug dealer, Hartanto alias A Hong, two accomplices identified as Matatula and Didit Kesit Cahyadi, and a woman named Winda. They were caught in a hotel in Surabaya.
Marcell : What did the police find in this case?
Arnys : They found 43 grams of crystal meth, an inhaling tube, a plastic bag of crystal meth, and other drug-taking paraphernalia.
Marcell : Really? That's a pity.
Arnys : Yes, and it's going to be a hot issue along this week.

Task 5

Task 3

Sentul to host first Speedcar race

Saturday, January 26, 2008

The Jakarta Post, Jakarta

Indonesia will play host to the first series of the US$3 million Speedcar Championships. The Indonesian races will take place at the Sentul International Circuit in Bogor, West Java, from Feb. 16 to 17. Indonesia will field its drivers Ananda Mikola and Moreno Soeprapto in the race.

Moreno said he hoped he would benefit from the home crowd and stand on the podium. He added that if he should manage to win the race, he would be able to attract more sponsors to help finance him in higher budget Formula races in the future.

The Speedcar series will feature 24 drivers behind their eight-valve cars with 620 horsepower, similar to the ones used in Nascar. Physically and skill wise, it's more demanding than Formula 1 as it is heavier. Speedcars weigh 1,300 kg, compared to the 600-kg Formula car.

Moreno and Ananda will race against a number of world-class drivers, including former Formula 1 drivers Jean Alessi and Johnny Herbert, in the races.

The speedcar championships, held in partnership with GP2 Asia, will award the winner US$600,000. The next series will be held in Malaysia, Bahrain and Dubai. (dre)
